

MENTORING MATTERS

A short workshop to help you make the most of your mentor and help your business thrive.

Find out just how much mentoring can actually benefit a new or small and growing business, and the ways in which a mentor can have a positive impact on your business. Don't expect a stuffy lecture ... because we don't work like that!!

You Should Attend if You:

- Are thinking of starting a business
- Are a micro or small business looking for ways to thrive or survive
- Want to bring your ideas into your business to help it grow

You will take away:

- A better understanding of how a mentor can help your business
- Tips to help you get the most out of a mentoring relationship
- Tips to help you boost your business
- Tips to help you find an effective mentor
